Pastor's Meditation

Reflections on the Passing of a Loved One

During the past 36 years. I have had the honor of sharing with most of you times of great joy and of great sorrow. I believe there is a bond between members of the Body of Christ, the Church, which is a special bond which redefines happiness as deep spiritual joy and also redefines sorrow as hope through tears, victory through defeat, life through death.

Recently I have been on the "receiving" end of this hope as expressed through you all during my twin brother Tom's illness and passing. I have said this several times but it bears repeating again: many times when I was with my family I sensed that you all were standing outside the door in the hall or in the yard looking in the window. This, I believe, was the tangible presence of your prayers and the Holy Spirit. This presence gave me, and continues to give me, much comfort and strength.

I also want to share that it is a certain fact that even the most faithful person has doubts during times of great challenge. This is normal. I experienced this. Jesus Himself suffered and asked if there was possibly another way besides crucifixion. And we, of course, aren't Jesus.

Your presence and words of hope and love and prayers truly are God's power lifting me and one another and those you meet from the brink of despair when one is physically and emotionally drained... to a place of belief and power. The great theologian Paul Tillich once said, "The old faith must die, eaten away by doubts, but only so that anew and deeper faith may be born."

"When anxiety was great within me, your consolation brought me joy." – Psalm 94:19

HYMN OF THE MONTH FOR MAY

"Holy, Holy, Holy"

Lyrics: Reginald Heber

Hymn Tune: "NICAEA"

"Holy, Holy, Holy" by Reginald Heber (1783-1826) is unique in many regards. Indeed, it spans many Christian traditions and centuries, unifying them in four timeless stanzas. Not only that, but Heber was an Anglican bishop whose ministry spanned continents and races, placing him as one of the heroes of the Christian faith.

Perhaps the most intriguing characteristic of the hymn is how the text does not initiate praise, but instead encourages the singer to join in an endless song. Both Isaiah 6:1-5 and Revelation 4:2-11 inspire this hymn, spanning the Testaments, reminding us that the Trisagion (thrice holy) has been uttered in worship for centuries. Isaiah received his vision in the eighth century B.C.; John the Apostle recorded his revelation in the first century C.E.; while Reginald Heber composed his hymn in 1826, in the nineteenth century.

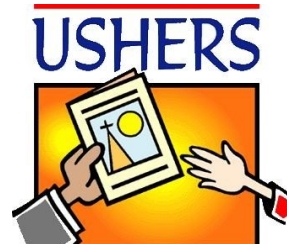

What makes this hymn so special? First, the rhyme scheme is unique since all four lines of each stanza rhyme with the word "holy." One won't easily find another hymn written this way. Another reason why "Holy, holy, holy" is such a timeless hymn is its pairing with the well-known tune NICAEA. Written by John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876), NICAEA has a unique elegance and magnificence, which in turn complements Heber's stately language. Named after the Council of Nicaea, where the nature of the Trinity was shaped theologically, NICAEA is also a classic example of Victorian hymn tune writing, notably with its solid harmonies and subtle chromaticism.

See you all there next month!

Dear Anita, Nancy, and ALL of Social Ministry,

It is with great appreciation that my family and I thank you for organizing, ordering, preparing and serving the luncheon following my father's funeral. Everything was set up so beautifully, and the food was delicious! Your efforts brought us peace and strength.

Bill loved Mellingers because of the special people like you! Thank you!!

Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.

The character of Christ radiates through who you are and the life you live.

Thanks for blessing <sup>our lives</sup> ~~my life~~ in such a special way.

With gratitude,

Susan Nodeen Farr
and the entire Nodeen family

To my friends at Mellinger's
Thank you for all the cards and prayers for Lavern and our family during his illness and passing.

Thank you
Carol Gehman

Dear Mellingers Lutheran Church,

April 5, 2024

Thank you for your generous gift of $2,800.00 to ministries of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) through ELCA Good Gifts.

"[Jesus said,] 'Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' [The lawyer] said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'"
(Luke 10:36-37)

As a church, we are freed by the transformative life of Christ, and this freedom emboldens us to love and serve our neighbors just as Christ has shown us. Your gifts to the ministries of the ELCA help people around the world feel the power of God's love.

Your Good Gift is a very good gift indeed. Through resources such as seedlings and seminary courses, vaccinations and vegetable gardens, Bibles and blankets, you equip God's people — around the world and around the corner — with what they need to live abundant lives.

Thank you for your gracious gifts. The glory of God shines through you.

Dear Mellingers Lutheran Church,

April 18, 2024

Thank you for your gift(s) given to your synod, received by ELCA World Hunger in February 2024.

As a church, we are freed by the transformative life of Christ, and this freedom emboldens us to love and serve our neighbors just as Christ has shown us. Your gifts to the ministries of the ELCA help people around the world feel the power of God's love.

Your generosity is getting at the root causes of hunger and poverty in over 60 countries, including the United States. It provides access to clean water, health care, agriculture, livestock and education, and it advances peace and justice. Through your gifts you join the whole church in working toward a just world where all are fed.

Thank you for your gracious gifts. The glory of God shines through you.

Lutheran World Relief
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT. LASTING PROMISE.

In 2023, Mellingers Social Ministry Committee collected and assembled Lutheran World Relief Kits: 60 Quilts, 255 School Kits, 98 Personal Care Kits. Our goal this year is to match last year's donations.

Donations bless those who have lost their home and belongings in natural disasters and for those who have had to flee their homes due to war and religious persecution. We pray that God moves your heart to help. If you are interested in helping, please contact a Social Ministry member. You need not join the committee in order to help, but we do welcome new members. Please use an envelope marked LWR to help change a life. With your donations to LWR, we can continue to do God's work. Lutheran World Relief envelopes are available or mark your donations LWR. Please visit their website for more information. <https://lwr.org>

Thank you and God Bless, ~ Social Ministry.

Social Ministry is active all year collecting for LWR and serving meals at funerals. We recently held our Spring Fling with Faith United to raise funds for Peter's Porch and we will be involved with Acts of Love, which is a summer food program held in conjunction with Ephrata Area Social Services and Real Life community services. The sites are Adamstown, Denver, Reamstown and Reinholds. The goal is to provide 2 meals per week at each site on Monday and Wednesday, which will mean 160 meals per day.

If you are interested in helping, please contact a Social Ministry member. Our members are Shirley Sweigart, President; Martha Brubaker, Secretary; Betty Cordes, Anita Soto, Nancy Heiser, Joan Moore, Johan Spotts, Jerilyn Yost, Lisa Reed, Fay Weitzel, Vicky Meckley, Nancy Eberly and Pastor Tim Craven.
